How Do You Follow Up?

with whom we partner. a quick reply to responses and questions. They are able to fill direct China, and in the Middle East provide questions and requests for more and to our Alaska station with European Mission are two ministries up. World Bible School and Eastern missionaries, and churches throughout We also coordinate with ministries courses and other religious materia requests for Bibles, correspondence Petersburg, Russia, Hong Kong the world to provide personal followinformation. Follow-up offices in St. Listeners write to our Franklin office responded to our broadcasts Thousands of listeners have

www.worldchristian.org

www.facebook.com/worldchristianbroadcasting

www.twitter.com/wcbroadcasting

www.instagram.com/worldchristianbroad

www.worldchristian.airtime.pro world. At any point of the day, 1

3 billion shortwave radios exist in the

Why Shortwave Radio?

billion are turned on with an average audience of three people per radio.

Our radio signals bounce off the

New and Improved!

While short-wave radio is our main avenue to reach the unreachable, we also take advantage of modern technology to reach even more souls with the Gospel. World Christian Broadcasting now has its own Internet Radio Station, (www.worldchristian.airtime.pro), playing our broadcasts 24 hours a day in 8 languages!

share Jesus to an astonishing ionosphere and travel all the way around planet earth. This form of communication has enabled us to remote areas of the world.

number of people in every house hamlet, and hut in even the most

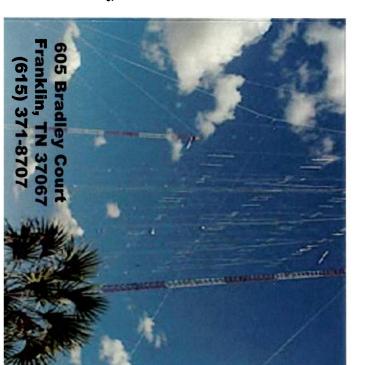

WHERE WE LOVE

TO TELL THE STORY

World Christian Broadcasting Home of KNLS and MWV

WE COVER THE WHOLE WORLD

We have both been heard and heard from every known country in the world. Over the last 40 years we have added more and more languages to our broadcast. We now broadcast in 8 languages. Each Language Service is led by our qualified Senior Producers: Sang Yang (Korean), Rob Scobey (English), Tony Tadros (Arabic), Edet Udofia (English for Africa), Romulo Fontes (Portuguese), Konstantin Chernushenko (Russian), Edward Ho (Chinese), Josè Castillo (Spanish).

WHATS NEXT?

We broadcast in the 8 most spoken languages in the world. With the addition of Korean programming in 2023, we can now blanket enables us to reach North Korea, which the most persecuted nation on earth. We would love to add more broadcasts What languages would you like in the future. add? What to help us language stirs your heart?

The World is Listening

1983

KNLS goes on the air from Anchor Point, AK. Broadcasts are sent in Russian, Mandarin (Chinese), and English.

1991

After the collapse of the Soviet Union, World Christian Broadcasting begins sending programs over Radio One (Russia's number one broadcast) and 50,000 letters pour in.

1999

Plans are made to add a second transmitter and antenna in Alaska. Research begins to locate a site to broadcast from in order to reach the Middle East.

2003

A meeting takes place with Marc Ravalomanana, President of Madagascar that leads to signing an intent to build a station there.

2005

The new addition is completed in Alaska allowing KNLS to be on the air 20 hours a day. Construction in Madagascar begins.

2006

The Senior Producer for the Arabic language service is hired.

2008

The Senior Producer for the African language service is hired.

2014

The President of Madagascar signs the Accord de Siege, allowing the MWV to go on the air.

2016

Madagascar World Voice goes on the air. On May 19, dedication ceremonies are held at the station.

2017

Broadcasts from MWV travel further and are heard with greater clarity than anticipated. Charles and Kathy Caudill retire after serving 29 years.

2018

Andy Baker is named President/ CEO. Portuguese language service begins.

2020

Covid-19 hits the world. Franklin studios are upgraded and a container with important parts for Madagascar is delivered. Kevin and Nancy Chambers retire after serving 40 years.

2023

The Korean language Senior Producer is hired and programs begin January 1.

